PRAYING TOGETHER

MORNING PRAYER

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father/Mother who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Padre/Madre nuestro, que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu nombre; venga a nosotros tu reino; hágase tu voluntad en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día; perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a los que nos ofenden; no nos dejes caer en la tentación, y líbranos del mal. Porque tuyo es el reino, el poder, y la gloria, por siempre. Amén.

JOYS AND CONCERNS

(After the livestream ends)

NOTES ON THE MUSIC AND COMPOSERS:

John Davison (1930-1999); American composer and educator. He was my composition teacher at Haverford College, where he taught from 1959 until his death. His music includes works ranging from solo songs to symphonies, chamber music to choral; in all he wrote over 200 pieces, with his "opus 1" a piano sonata he wrote when he was 8.

Why Psalm 80? It is an instructive reading for the July 4th weekend.

David Hurd (born 1950) is a distinguished African-American composer and recitalist, and was professor of church music at the General Theological Seminary, New York City for nearly 40 years until the faculty strike at that institution in 2014. His church music, especially, is widely performed, and he received the Distinguished Composer recognition of the American Guild of Organists in 2010.

"Detroit" is an old American hymn, first published in the 1820 version of the Kentucky harmony. It is set to many different texts, including "Do I not love thee, O my God" and "forgive our sins as we forgive."
