Annual Meeting of University Baptist Church Foundation CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

Minutes of the 173rd Annual Congregational Meeting of University Baptist Church June 2, 2024

Call to Order: President Jean Lubke called the meeting to order at 11:49 AM. Pastor Doug Donley offered the opening prayer.

Review and Approval of Congregational Meeting Minutes: Jean Lubke introduced and presented the minutes from the June 2023 Annual Meeting. There was a motion by Paula Moyer Johnson and a second by Denise Roy to approve the June 2023 Annual Meeting Minutes. The motion carried.

Celebration of Membership: Jean Lubke noted there are 83 active members and 6 inactive members. Three were removed upon their death; these include Kit Martin, Lucile Carman, and Don Wester. Two new members were added; these include Betsy Kerr and Roberta (Robbie) Steele. There was a question about if the directory is updated; Denise clarified that there is a directory that is updated and we can determine the best way to provide those updates to the congregation. Megan requested that for inactive members UBC email those members before putting them on inactive status for one year.

Review and Approval of Agenda: Denise Roy presented the agenda as printed in the Annual Report. Howard Johnson moved to approve the agenda; Megan Gunnar-Dahlberg seconded the motion. The motion carried.

The following is a summary of the presentation of program reports made during the meeting. See the full reports in the 2022-2023 Annual Report.

Pastor's Report: Doug Donley gave thanks to the congregation for support during his health challenges this past year. He also lifted up Jean Lubke, who not only served as President, but also coordinated our discernment process. He presented her with a gift of flowers. Doug also lifted up David Lesniaski, our music director, who is retiring from St. Catherine's University, for his support above-and-beyond the call of duty this past year. He, too, was presented with a gift of flowers. Further detail can be found in the Pastor's report.

Council Report: Jean Lubke began her report by thanking council members for their service, with particular emphasis on the work it has done around the discernment process. She also reminded us that next year is our 175th anniversary.

Church Life Report: Gayla Marty and Betty Shaw presented their report. Highlights this year included:

• Children came back to church this year, and we had two new babies (Valeria and Elias). It's been a joy to have them in our congregation.

- New protection policy for children and vulnerable adults was passed this year, acknowledging the work of Denise Roy, Betty Shaw, and John Medeiros.
- Reconnecting with Mother St. James church this past year was a highlight.
- We also had a Celebration of Life service for Lu Carmen.
- See report on pages 11-20 for further detail.
- Claire commended the committee for its impressive list of forums this past year, and Denise gave special thanks to Gayla for her efforts in coordinating forums.
- Mission giving was over $6,000 this year.

Outreach Report: Deidre Druk and Kim Donley co-presented their report. Highlights this year included:

- We raised over $9,000 this year for special missions (additional detail in report).
- Deidre thanked volunteers for keeping the church's outreach work moving forward.
- Report starts on page 21.

Property Report: Patrick Mavity presented the property report. He discussed the aging building. Highlights:

- We were able to repair water leak and reroute the plumbing to avoid future damage.
- Our insurance policy does not cover wind and hail damage, and we are re-investigating our coverage and exploring other options.
- Other projects (such as roofing and tuckpointing and floor in the sanctuary) are ongoing.
- Apartment is close to being ready for occupancy; main problems are with the kitchen floor and the gas stove, which needs to be replaced.
- Additional detail can be found in the property report, which starts on page 25.

Talent Team Report: Jean Lubke reported for the Talent Team for Margie Garmers. She noted the following (see page 27):

- Bold = who we are voting on
- Bold Italics = returning positions
- Open Positions:
 - o Co-Coordinator for Church Life, with Betty
 - o Co-Coordinator for Outreach, with Kim (Kim clarified the position would mainly require attendance at council meetings).
 - o Property Coordinator
 - o Communication Coordinator
 - o Church Growth Core Ministry
- Jean asked if anyone would like to add their name to an open slot.
 - o Margie Garmers volunteer to fill the Co-Coordinator for Church Life.
 - o Claire Mavity volunteered for Building Maintenance Core Team leader.
 - o Carole Graham agreed to be co-coordinator for Outreach.

Jean Lubke announced the updated list. Chris Follett made a motion to approve the new list, and Paula Moyer seconded the motion. Motion carried.

Trish Donley thanked Jean for volunteering to serve as President for another year.

Financial Reports. Chris Follett presented as Financial Secretary; Denise Roy also presented at Treasurer. Reports start on page 28. Income include:

- Pledges are on track, though we may be a few thousand less than budgeted.
- Mission giving $10,015.
- Special designated gift of $5,000, and over $80,000 from COVID-era Retention Tax Credit.
- Rental income: lost a tenant this year, and we are expecting $70,000 in rental income.
- Memorials of $58,000.

Denise Roy, as Treasurer, provided the following highlights of this year's expenditures.

- Report starts on page 30.
- There are actually three reports: last year annual; this year through April 2024, and the proposed budget for next year.
- Last year we approved a budget with a deficit of $55,000, knowing there were tax credit funds available. Through April, we are running a deficit of only $6,500.
- We had good news with heating; we spent very little this year. We budgeted $25,000, and through April we spent a little more than $9,000.
- We anticipate a deficit by the end of June, and it is expected it would not be much worse than the current $6,500.
- Council has agreed that we will use the Employee Retention Tax Credit to make up the deficit for this year's budget.
- For next year's projected budget, and what we need to vote on, starts on page 36 and ends on page 38 of the report.
- Anticipated deficit of $45,000, however anticipated pledge income is up substantially next year, and we've been receiving special gifts. Budget includes compensation increase, and natural gas at $25,000; added things consistent with discernment process (e.g., advertising). Budget also includes a snow plowing increase.
- We hoped to get a seminary intern but removed that line item because this is not happening this year.
- Mindy Lee asked for clarification on snowplow funding it is paid even if it does not snow.
- Jean would like to point out we don't have Latinx ministry this year, as Ani's role is completed.
- Janitor substitute funds (we will need to hire help for when Janitor is on vacation).
- Servant Keeper is our software used to keep track of income (pledges, rental, etc). This is not a new fee; it was just moved to its own line item.
- Budgeted income: we are recommending a request from Foundation (each year we have an authorized amount we can remove) of $41,000. This will cover operating expenses and CISA allowance, and a supplement for Property Manager position.
- In the discernment process we decided we need help with marketing, but it is not yet in the budget because we need to research how much we need to devote.

- We already placed an ad in the Lavender, and advertising funds will be used to do ongoing ads next year.
- Marie LaFrance questioned why pastor salary went up 5% and staff salary went up 3%. Jean Lubke clarified that Personnel Committee reviews evaluations for all staff and comes up with a proposal for each person (considering base compensation as well as merit increases). This difference is based on merit discussions.

Jean Lubke gave a huge thank you to Denise for all her hard work with helping to manage our budget. Megan Dahlberg moved to approve the proposed budget on pages 36-38, with a possible deficit of up to $44,900 (with the expectation that it will be less). Carrie Lubke seconded. Motion carried.

Jean Lubke thanked the congregation for the increase in pledges, which is over $200,000 for the very first time in UBC history.

New Business: Betty Shaw expressed concern about the land acknowledgement statement we make each Sunday. It is inconsistent among worship leaders, and we need to be consistent. She also said that if our position is to consider reparations that we make a commitment to do that. Jean responded that this is something that needs much time for discussion, and that Outreach put together a proposal of language to use, and to take that to a Congregational vote. It can also include what we decide to do with respect to reparations. Trish Donley reminded the Congregation that this is included in our discernment process.

Adjournment: Terri Wottrich moved to adjourn the Annual Meeting; Carole Graham seconded. Meeting adjourned at 1:12 pm.

John Medeiros, Church Clerk

SPECIAL MEETING

Special Meeting of University Baptist Church December 1, 2024

Call to Order: President Jean Lubke called the meeting to order at 11:34 AM.

Agenda of Meeting: Jean Lubke informed the congregation that the agenda for the meeting is to discuss and take a formal vote on the Marketing and Communication Manager position, a newly created position that stemmed from our most recent discernment process.

Background: Jean reminded attendees that a challenge UBC has faced for over 40 years has been the attempts to figure out how to get out the word of UBC and what it has to offer to those who would benefit from that message. We had a seminary intern in the past, who was charged with the marketing task, and it was not very successful. Over 15 years ago UBC added a communications coordinator to our Time and Talent sheet, and that position has been vacant for most of that time (with someone filling that role for about two years).

During our most recent discernment process, a theme that repeated itself several times was the need to refocus people's power and the need for a communications and marketing professional to help in that effort by increasing the number of church attendees and volunteers. The Personnel Committee and the Church Council took this to task, with no budget, and little knowledge of how to move forward. The Personnel Committee (consisting of Megan Dahlberg and Steve Lee) met with Jean to create a job description and provide a proposal for the congregation to vote on.

The position as drafted is for a .5 FTE, through the end of June 2026, with an annual salary of $42,000. The Council approved the idea, but had two overarching questions:

- (1) Should the position be an employee of the church, or a contract employee? and
- (2) How will the position be funded?

To this second question, Jean informed those present that the church recently received a grant from the Region of about $23,000 to be used toward our discernment process. Of that, the Council applied about $2,500 to cover outstanding costs for speakers at the discernment retreat, and roughly $14,000+ to cover expenses related to an architect assessment to help us identify and prioritize goals for the building as we move forward with our national registry designation process. This leaves roughly $6,000 available toward this position.

Jean reminded those present that we need congregational approval to move forward with this position. If we move forward with it, Jean stated that we will need an interview committee, as well as a group of people to coordinate and perform the necessary recruitment. She then opened up the meeting to questions.

Questions:

• Is there a budget for recruitment? (Jean Lubke) No, but we don't anticipate recruitment costs because recruitment will be done through outlets that don't charge (such as Minnesota Council of Churches).

- Has the Council looked into whether or not there are other churches in the area with a similar position and if so did they consult with those churches in drafting the job description? (Jean Lubke) Several area churches have a similar theme their positions are more communications related than marketing related. Our position is modeled on the same concept. The job description is drafted from that of another area church.
- Did the Council consider working with a marketing company instead of hiring an individual? (Jean Lubke) This was not brought up in conversations with the Council. Further, what came out of the discernment process was to explore hiring an individual. (Claire Mavity) Many marketing companies only devise marketing plans; they do not actually implement them. Further, this can be very expensive.
- What are some of the cost considerations? (Denise Roy). Cost is a serious consideration, and we all need a clear understanding of the finances. Presently, the Foundation balance at the end of October 2024 is just under $700,000. Further, we approved using $74,000 from the Foundation for this year's expenses (each year our distribution from the foundation is lower than the previous year). One main concern is that while we have the funds in the Foundation, we may not know for another year and a half if the position is actually working, which means we may need to approve more to know if the position is actually effective. One thing we must keep in mind is that we cannot expect this position to pay for itself.
- Did you explore other churches in the area to see if they, too, have a similar need so we can perhaps share this position and funding it? (Jean Lubke) Yes. We met with First Congregational Church, and they like the idea of a shared position, but they are not yet ready to explore this. Perhaps they will be in the future, but they are not at this time.
- How would this effect the Administrative Assistant role? Will that job description need to be modified? (Jean Lubke) The new position would give direction to the communications and marketing duties that are already in the current job description of the Administrative Assistant. We will not be creating new duties that are not already in the job description.

Comments

- (David Lesniaski) It is important for us to invest in the future. Churches that fail some that are no longer around fail because they do not market themselves.
- (David Lesniaski) The job description does not have measurable goals, such as creating a sustainable marketing plan. We should consider adding those.
- (Gayla Marty) We need to transition to digital communications in a strategic and coordinated fashion. We have started but we have a long way to go. We also need to identify to what extent we want to market to the university community.

Motion

Denise Roy made the following motion (amended and seconded by John Medeiros)

A motion was made to create approve the Marketing and Communication Manager position based on the job description as drafted and to charge the Personnel Committee to fill the position through June 30, 2026, of no more than $42,000 annually and to bring to the Church Council a recommendation for this position to be a staff position or a contractor position.

Motion carried.

Adjournment

Meeting adjourned at 12:32 pm.

PASTOR'S REPORT

This year has been a remarkably busy one for us as a congregation. Not only were we tasked with fulfilling our discernment priorities identified a year ago, but we were doing it amidst the backdrop of the US election and the monumental changes that it brought on our country and the rest of the world. At times, it felt like this was a year of reacting and supporting those who are feeling the most vulnerable. That's the church's role, after all—support those who are hurting, and also making sure that harm is thwarted before it starts. The latter is harder work.

UBC has not cowered in a corner, licking our wounds. We have stepped up to the plate and have acted like we always do, with courage, with wisdom and with grace.

Elsewhere in this report, you will find news about how we are taking care of our building concerns, including exploring historical designation, an architect's analysis and even a change in insurance carriers. You will find out about our new marketing and communications director Maura Dunst who started her work here in March. You will find out about how we have deepened our relationship with our friends at First Congregational church and other ministry partners. All of this is an outgrowth of our discernment process.

There is a renewed energy in the congregation. We often find visitors and new members have joined. We have deepened our relationships with the Trans and the immigrant communities.

As a way to deepen our antiracism work, six of us attended a series of workshops entitled, Sacred Reckonings. This training builds upon our antiracism work that we have been leaning into with intention since 2020. The trainings gave us a toolbox of resources to be more effective antiracist presences—something sorely needed in this day and age. The nature of this work is that it is never done, so we accumulate more tools and strategies and try them on for size. I'm looking forward to attending the Sacred Sites tour led by Jim Bear Jacobs on June 1.

We continue to be a place where Sacred Harp is celebrated and sung. A group of hearty singers gather every Tuesday and two Sundays a month to sing and enjoy each other's company. In July, we hosted one of the three local annual Sacred Harp conventions (there is a different convention for each book). One of these years, we'll bring back a Sacred Harp Sunday morning service.

In October, I performed the wedding of Katie MacAulay and Jacob Beier. They have been great additions to our church. We were also glad to have Zena Hamilton and Violet Butler officially join the UBC family.

We were saddened to say goodbye to Bob Carman, Dick Beamer, Laurie Brazman and Roger Johnson this year. Each left a huge mark on our congregation. We miss them all deeply.

After six months of laying low because of my medical challenges, I travelled to several places on behalf of the church this year. In July, I attended the Baptist Peace Fellowship's summer conference in Asheville, NC. I went to Washington, DC twice to attend Alliance of Baptists events, and went to Philadelphia to attend the launch conference for a grant cohort that will help us implement our discernment priorities. I plan to attend the ABC Biennial convention in Omaha, Nebraska in early July and the BPFNA summer conference in Mexico City in mid-July. I again thank the UBC community for being patient and caring as I recovered from my surgery. You modeled the very heart of Christian community as you held me up and stepped up to fill all of the gaps.

We have been at this work as a congregation for 175 years. We're going to spend some time this year celebrating all those who have helped make us who we are. Building upon this foundation, we are looking toward the next chapters of this fine congregation.

I feel blessed to walk and minister alongside the fine people of UBC.

Faithfully Submitted, Doug Donley

UBC COUNCIL REPORT

Members: Jean Lubke, President; Denise Roy, treasurer; John Medeiros, Clerk; Margot Garmers (and Betty Shaw) Church Life; Karole Graham (and Kim Donley), Outreach; Doug Donley, Pastor

Participants: Patrick Mavity, Property Manager; Maura Dunst, Marketing / Community Manager

Most of the work of the church occurs by small groups and individuals whose ministry work is reported in the following pages. The Council oversees church-wide projects.

This year, the Council's main focus was on implementing and overseeing the actions identified in last year's discernment process goal areas. We received a grant from ABC-RGR of $23K along with monthly consulting services to help keep us on track to achieve our three discernment goals.

Refocusing People Power

- Hire Marketing Communication specialist. One of our biggest accomplishments of this year was the addition of professional help to market our story. The Personnel Committee finalized a position description, posted for a part-time (50%) Marketing / Communication Manager, and with the help of Claire Mavity, Katie Hartman, Violet Butler, and Matty Strickler hired Maura Dunst.
- Leadership position descriptions communicated. A description of the responsibilities of each of the leadership positions was included with the stewardship packet.
- All Social Media Updated and Maintained. Maura Dunst is updating and revamping the website. Our presence on social media has greatly expanded.
- The position descriptions of the Administrative Assistant and the Janitor were reviewed and updated.
- The various administrative software systems used were evaluated and the transition to more efficient, effective, and streamlined technologies is in process.
- Still to be Done: Laity Task Force formed (to revamp the organizational structure); 15 new members (2 new members by mid-May)

Solving Building Issues

- Investigate National Registry of Historic Places. We applied and received a grant of $10K from the Minnesota Historical Society to hire New History (historic preservationists) to write our Property Evaluation, the first step in determining if our building will qualify for the National Registry. Currently, we've received positive feedback from the state historic agencies, and we submitted the Property Evaluation for final review in mid-May. We hope to have approval from the state for Step 1 by mid-June.
- Investigate alternative uses of our building. We have one proposal from an architect's firm that could help us determine our needs and alternate uses and re-design of our building, if we choose to pursue that process.
- Finance Architect's Report. We used the largest amount from the RGR grant to fund another building evaluation done by our architects Mack and McDonald. We expect to have the results of their findings on the status of our building with recommendations for improvements by the Annual Meeting.
- Had safety vulnerability studies done by the local police representatives to determine ways to improve the safety of our building and grounds for our congregation, renters, and visitors.
- Still to be Done: Form Building Task Force; Receive Market / Sales Analysis of property; Collect info on congregational building needs / wants; Determine Approximate Cost of Alternative Site

Opening Our Doors Within and Without

- Ongoing Ad placed in Lavender Magazine. We now have a recurring listing in Lavender as well as ads in the Pride and Wedding issues.
- Contacted Trans Support Organizations to be Listed. Hosted Two Forums / Presentations from Trans Org. Hosted a 2-part forum and are listed as a welcoming, safe congregation.
- Launching a new branding campaign with a new logo!
- Launched the 175th Anniversary Task Force!
- Evaluating our advertisements and signage. $5k from the RGR grant was committed to augmenting the marketing budget.
- Hosted families overnight during December as part of the Faithful Hospitality network.
- Participated in Sacred Reckonings training in the path toward reconciliation and reparation.
- Created a joint UBC / FCC Task Force to deliberately find ways to reinforce each other's, and our joint, ministries. Having monthly gatherings; finding opportunities to build relationships and support each other. Will have a joint booth at the Pride Festival.
- Still to be Done: Contact MCC re: reparations. Advertised in Women's Press and MN Daily. Visit Dakota Hocokatati; Held at least two joint events with Mother St. James; Completed Concrete Plan for Repair and Reparations.

In addition to managing the annual church budget, the Council approved an updated Sanctuary Policy and Volunteer Guide, and updated our membership roster for the first time since COVID.

It has been very exciting to see the energy around the implementation of our discernment work, the increasing involvement of children and families, new members, and the number of regular visitors/friends.

I was honored to serve with this dedicated, thoughtful, wise group of UBCers.

CHURCH LIFE CO-COORDINATORS' REPORT

Introduction

Worship/Education/Council

As I have just begun to learn the ropes of this position, I am continually amazed by everything that is going on at UBC. The following report (hopefully) outlines what has occurred over the past year in the life of the church. My sincere thanks to, and gratitude for, ALL of the people that have made everything happen. Many people submitted portions of this report for their areas. Thank you to all of them for their contributions. Because there is so much going on, I am certain that I have overlooked something important. My apologies if I have.

-Submitted by Margot Garmers, Church Life Co-coordinator

New Members Orientation

As the New Member contact, I have sent queries to several people and have had the joy of meeting with four prospective members. As a result, Violet Butler and Zena Hamilton placed their membership with us in October of 2024. I have also made periodic announcements to let prospective members know whom to contact. I welcome feedback for making the path to church membership more obvious and easier to navigate. They are a joy to work with. - Faithfully yours, Paula Moyer

Additional information on New Members and deaths can be found in the Membership Report.

Community

Coffee hour has a growing group of contributors. Special mention should go to the children of the church who provided beautiful spreads of Halloween, Christmas, and Valentine's Day cookies and treats. Special thanks to Marie LaFrance, Betsy Kerr, Chris Follett, Teri Wottrich, Anne Johnson, Gayla Marty, Nancy Myers, John Mederios, Diane Ehr, Claire Mavity, Betty Shaw, and others for their contributions.

The fall potluck picnic was held the second Sunday in September and was well attended, with dishes for all dietary needs provided. The weather cooperated and food was served from the portico.

The Christmas sanctuary decorating party, held December 22, included coffee and treats in the sanctuary, and decorations were taken down after church on January 5 followed by a potluck in the sanctuary.

Palm Sunday brunch in the Adele Fadden Assembly Hall was well attended. Special thanks to Kim Donley, Gayla Marty, Claire Mavity, Chris and Don Follett, and Terri Wottrich for their help.

The third annual children's Easter egg hunt was held in beautiful weather the Saturday before Easter. About a dozen children and more than a dozen adults attended. Doug Donley flipped pancakes and Trish Donley filled the plastic eggs and hid them outside. This growing event was fun for all.

The annual-meeting potluck will be held in the sanctuary on June 8.

Caregivers Support Group led by Jean Lubke continued to meet monthly via zoom.

The Memoirs Writing Group met via Zoom every other Tuesday night, with some rescheduling to accommodate the Anti-racism working group and events. Eight to ten writers participated throughout the year and several contributed stories for the UBC newsletter.

The Grace in Contemporary Literature by Women book group met monthly via Zoom except for August, when its annual salad potluck was held at Kim Donley's house. The group reads books by women authors (memoirs or novels) selected by participants. Chris Follett coordinates.

Knitting group met monthly in individual homes and included members from First Congregational church. Chris Follett is the coordinator.

The Card Club hosted and led monthly by Jean Lubke monthly has grown in popularity. Jean provides instruction and materials.

A Spanish conversation group began meeting once a month in a cafe in Northeast Minneapolis.

-Submitted by Betty Shaw, Church Life Co-coordinator

Special services

Memorial Services for members Bob Carman and Roger Johnson. Pastor Doug officiated at both services, which were wonderful events. The families provided luncheons, and our committee provided set up and clean up after the well-attended receptions.

Margot adds: The bells (augmented by a few Grove ringers), and the UBC choir were greatly honored to participate in the celebration of the life of Laurie Brazman, also held at UBC.

Newsletter

Chris Follett has faithfully continued to edit the UBC newsletter, published on the first of each month and usually 15 to 20 pages in length. It is always packed with information and news as well as photos. Trista McGovern emails it as well as posts it on UBC's website.

175th Anniversary Committee

The committee to lead the 175th anniversary of our congregation's founding in 1850 was recruited by the Talent Team's Sue Wester in January and met twice a month February through May. Members are Chris Follett, Don Follett, Elwyn Fraser, Harriet Johnson, Howard Johnson, Gayla Marty (chair), Betty Shaw, Terri Wottrich. Sue Wester agreed to serve as adjunct to the committee and our first meeting was held at her home, with Harriet and Howard on Zoom. Available committee members also reported and gathered input at the March 2 forum. We had lots of materials to work with, including a brainstorming list started by Jean Lubke inspired by the Mother St. James AME church's anniversary held at UBC in 2023, a brainstorming session that collected input from the congregation on October 27, 2024, and an outline of areas to address by Sue Wester. We are planning a Founding Day observance on Sunday, July 13, our actual founding day. It's great that this is one of the annual joint summer services with First Congregational Church of Minnesota, which was founded just a year after our congregation. Other congregations will be invited and an ice cream social held on the lawn. In the fall, we are planning a block party with music and arts throughout the building on a weekend afternoon, and a "homecoming" All Saints service on November 2. We are also working on a history booklet sequel to the 1950 and 1975 booklets plus a memoir-essay collection. Programming guided by the anniversary as a theme will continue through the rest of the program year ending June 30, 2026. We will report regularly in the newsletter, bulletin, and forums. We are grateful to the Council and an anonymous donor for our budget, and to new marketing and communication staff member Maura Dunst, whose expertise will allow us to seize this opportunity to learn and to tell our story as widely as we can. I am grateful to the committee for its incredible creativity, wisdom, and drive. They are a blessing to us all.

A note from the Church Life Co-coordinator, Margot Garmers:

I want to express so much gratitude to everyone who coordinates the vibrant and growing list of community activities available at UBC. Below is a list of groups and their coordinators. My apologies if I have missed anyone:

Worship Planning Team

Team members: Pastor Doug Donley, Deidre Druk, music director David Lesniaski, Jean Lubke, Gayla Marty, Karole Graham, Violet Butler, Betsy Kerr, and off site contributor Robbie Steele

At the team planning retreat on June 8, 2024, we chose the worship theme "Reframe and Reclaim," recognizing that too much of Christianity has been hijacked. We need to reframe our priorities, reclaim the best parts of Christianity and use that as a springboard to understand and act in this current moment.

This year with the number of international students and friends we enhanced the services with the inclusion of a welcome and peace be with you in Chinese, Japanese, Russian, Spanish, and German.

The team also spent many hours discussing the Land Acknowledgement and how best to include it in our service.

Joint services with First Congregational Church (FCC) will be held this summer at UBC on July 6 and 13 and at FCC on July 20 and 27.

Christmas Eve service was once again festive with the children and families enacting the nativity tableau, this year with the Francisco Diaz family in the special role of the Holy Family.

Guest preachers were Paula Moyer, Rev. Cody Sanders, Rev. Anne Supplee, Maia Twedt, Rev. Matty Strickler and Chris Bohnhoff.

Thanks, finally, to music director David Lesniaski, the UBC Chorale and soloists, and the Carillon Bell Choir for their dedication and artistry as they lead us in music. More information appears in the reports that follow.

Livestream & Technology

Claire Eckert has continued in the livestream tech lead position. Volunteer backups would be greatly appreciated to assist Claire occasionally. New microphones have improved sound quality over the livestream.

Worship Leaders

We have had a very large worship leader team this year. The following folks have all lead the service, a number of them doing so almost once a month: Gayla Marty, Deidre Druk, Violet Butler, and Megan Dahlberg helped often by Paula Moyer, John Medeiros, Carrie Lubke, Jean Lubke, Jonathan Lubke, Betty Shaw and Jean Lubke. Megan Dahlberg has often taken the worship leader responsibilities on Sundays when the Bells perform as 4 of our team also play bells. On these Sundays, because preaching and playing bells is enough of a task, she has helped Pastor Doug out by stepping in to do the children's time. Thanks to all of the worship leaders for their wonderful gifts of time and talent to our services.

Ushers

Thanks to our usher team, Chris Follett (coordinator), Trish Donley, Terri Wottrich, Gene Velasco, John Medeiros, and Deb Wensman (along with Steven Schmidgall at times).

Music Director Report

This was a busy and very fruitful year for the choir. When we gathered in September, we had several people come who had not been in the choir previously, and, after things settled into place in the fall, we had three new members. This let us do some larger and more complicated pieces, such as "Freedom, come" as the Easter anthem and Delta Rae's "All good people."

In February, the choir, along with handbells and the instrumental group 10th Wave, performed two of Elwyn Fraser's compositions "Heaven's sunrise" and "Our hearts will sing on" in his concerts at First Baptist Church in St. Paul. We also performed Kim Donley's arrangement of "Freedom, come" in the spring.

Sadly, Laurie Brazman is no longer with us, and we were privileged to sing three of her favorite pieces at her memorial service in March.

In February, all organ selections were by Black composers, and in March, all were by women composers, a practice I carried over from the past few years. I'm also working with the Minnesota Music Librarians

Association to have local libraries diversify their collections of organ music, thus making such music easily accessible to all performers statewide.

In order to diversify our choral music collection, I applied for and received a grant from the U of M for a "mini-project" where I asked a student to research and find reasonable sources for acquiring world music suitable for SATB choir and choral music by African-American composers. I will be looking over his work during the summer and placing orders for music we can perform over next year (and beyond).

The choir is growing! I am grateful for the many choir members who have managed to attend rehearsal week after week and give their all during rehearsal and Sunday services. The following list includes all who sang with us for at least part of the choir season. It does not include various soloists or others who were able to join us occasionally.

The organ continues to be in good shape. We again had the instrument tuned by Russel Drager & Co. this year rather than Grandall & Engen, the previous tuners, in large part because of scheduling difficulties with G&E. We signed a contract with Drager that gives us a lower annual fee (compared to G&E) ... and Drager, in my opinion, does a much better job in both tuning and maintaining the instrument.

There is a small amount of money remaining from the organ project of several years ago. I would like to hold this in a special fund just in case the organ needs a sudden repair that is not part of the regular annual budget.

The lounge piano and the Petrof piano have been tuned every few months, as needed, and the Petrof had some minor adjustments made in the action (the dampers were not always returning to fully damp the strings when the key was let up, and, for a few notes, the UC pedal would cause the adjacent note to sound). For the shape it's in, it's in good shape. However, according to the former tuner, eventually the instrument will need major work. The soundboard has 5 cracks (though at present they do not substantially affect the sound) and that will necessitate a new soundboard (as well as a new set of strings) to the tune of ca. $8,000 at some point in the future. This is not an immediate need, though, but perhaps something to be aware of for several years in the future.

Both instruments are challenged by the highly variable climate conditions in the sanctuary, where the temperatures can range from about 55 during the week in midwinter to the mid-80s in the summer, and the humidity can go from around 25% up to 80% depending on the season. Over the past two years a milder winter than normal and careful attention to the heating system has resulted in much greater climate stability in the sanctuary, a good thing for both instruments.

UBC Handbell Choirs Report

We started our year with a newly refurbished set of handbells and chimes after spending the summer at "bell camp" in Custer, South Dakota. It took us a while to break in the new springs, but the bells sound better and shine brilliantly.

After the joint concerts of April 2024, we thought we'd take a slightly easier path this year. We added two younger ringers to our group – Quinn Jatzo and Jean's Chinese exchange student Iris Guo.

In November, we received the delightful invitation to play in the balcony of the Children's Theatre for the opening night of "The Grinch Who Stole Christmas." We had fun and the staff enjoyed our music, but once the patrons came into the lobby, no one could hear the bells over the sound of excited children; not sure we'll get invited back.

In December, we gave a concert to a small, but enthusiastic crowd at Harriet Johnson's senior facility Walker.

But just as we were preparing for our February Love and Light concerts and the March BellFest, we learned that we would also be playing for the memorial service of our dear ringer, Laurie Brazman.

Elwyn Fraser's Light and Love concerts, Feb. 15 and 16 at First Baptist Church, St. Paul, had double choir bells accompanying two of his beautiful compositions along with the UBC choir, and the 10th Wave instrumental ensemble. Ringers from Grove joined to help. We gave two amazing concerts introducing Elwyn's music and ending with a powerful arrangement for bells and Elwyn's voice on Puccini's "Nessun Dorma" from Turandot.

On March 8th, we joined 10 other bell choirs for another BellFest day of rehearsals and a public concert.

The following Saturday, the bells (augmented by a few Grove ringers), the UBC choir, and some family celebrated the life of Laurie Brazman with a musical tribute. The bells channeled Laurie's spirit and we played wonderfully. We played her favorite "chestnut" "Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing," a new, powerful piece we learned for BellFest called "Restored," and closed with the arrangement of "Day by Day" from our Scandinavian tour. Lauren Thrift played Laurie's C6 / D6 bells, and at a pause before the last verse, she turned off her stand light, stood Laurie's bells upright, and walked away from the table as our final tribute to our friend who had played and toured with the bells for 14 years.

In May, we debuted our new lighter-weight dark green shirts (paid for by our concerts).

Lauren, Deidre, and I will be participating in another Witte mini-tour to Venice, Slovenia, Croatia, and Budapest in August. We will be again joined by an amazing bell choir from Estonia, and we are hoping to solidify plans for a joint bell tour to Finland and Estonia in summer 2027!

I am very thankful for the dedicated, flexible, hard-working ringing team!

Thanks to regular ringers: Laurie Brazman, Doug Donley, Deidre Druk, Jill Easton, Margot Garmers, Karole Graham, Iris Guo, Quinn Jatzo, Betsy Kerr, Carrie Lubke, Jonathan Lubke, Lauren Thrift, Gene Velasco, and Janella Wendorf; and substitutes Rachel Henzen, Kaite Knack, Rochelle Milbrath, Helen Smith, and Dawn Walker. Looking ahead to another great year of adventures in music-making together!

-Jean Lubke, Director of Handbell Choirs

Roots Cellar

The Roots Cellar celebrated its 11th season with six concerts. Our attendance has not been great, but the crowds and artists are always enthusiastic. We even had a feature article about the Roots Cellar in the Minnesota Bluegrass magazine.

September 21 Kray Van Kirk November 2 Mark Krietzer November 16 The Eclectics January 11 Spencer Lajoye January 25 Tim Cheesebrow March 22 Curtis and Loretta

Thanks to Pat Mavity for doing set up/take down and running sound. Kim Donley has done concessions. Trista McGovern took care of publicity and the website. Deidre Druk worked the door and Doug Donley took care of the booking and any other tasks as needed. We're already booking our 12th season which will start in the fall.

Education

Sunday School

The parents have decided that they do not want a Sunday School during forum time or before the service. Thus, any Sunday School has to happen during the service itself. The parents also have opted to create special family events (which have been wonderful for all) rather than staffing formal Sunday School classes. Instead, Megan Dahlberg began last fall conducting a brief Sunday School lesson for Peter and Andrew Justin during the announcement and joys and concerns time. This has worked out very well. The 15-20 minutes is enough time to get a bit of "how was your week" and a focused lesson in. This year we started with John the Baptist and moved through to the beginning of Jesus' ministry, the parables, and the structure of the bible. The boys have been highly motivated by the goal of "beating the parents" in a quiz which will take place sometime at the end of May. Megan can continue this class next year, but it is high time that the younger children receive some lessons. Prior to this year, Megan used to go into the nursery using the same announcement and Joys and Concerns' time to do a circle time with a few songs and a story. It would be wonderful if the parents or some other church members would take this up next year.

-Submitted by Megan Gunnar Dahlberg, Sunday School Coordinator

Nursery

Currently the nursery is fully staffed. We have our four wonderful nursery workers (Sami, Ely, Charlie, and Peter) providing childcare on Sundays and Wednesdays, with two of them sticking around for the summer. Summer hours will dwindle as bells and choir rehearsals take their annual break, but we hope to bring back a strong team in the fall with no less than four staff. We have been beyond grateful to have had Ely working with us for the last few years, and unfortunately for UBC they will be moving to Australia to pursue a master's degree! We wish them luck on their upcoming endeavors.

To assist with the hiring process, Trista kindly created an Indeed job posting, which I anticipate will be used in the fall to bring our team back up to full capacity. Instead of allowing staff to choose shifts, occasionally resulting in last minute calls for coverage and unstaffed shifts, I now assign shifts ahead one month at a time with consideration given to workday preferences, vacations, and school breaks. We maintain dedication to having two staff on Sunday mornings during the non-summer months to be in compliance with Minnesota state statutes regarding ratio between children and adults. We have also recommitted to providing appropriate pay to our staff per Minneapolis' 2025 minimum wage increase to $15.97 per hour. Staff are now being hired at $16/hour instead of $15/hour.

Bible Studies 2024-2025

During the past year two small groups have met regularly to read the Bible. The members of the Saturday Bible Study, which meets the first and third Saturdays of the month on Zoom, have been reading the Gospel of Luke. The Sunday group, which meets weekly in the Char Follett library, has been reading Scripture lessons based on the Common Lectionary that appear in Journeys, a publication of American Baptist Churches, USA. Both groups break for the summer and resume in September. I am deeply grateful for these Bible studies, for Gayla Marty and Doug Donley who host Zoom Saturdays, for Nancy Myers (co-coordinator of Journeys), and for all the participants who with their questions, insights and faith stories have made the ancient texts come alive.

Conclusion

As co-coordinators of Church Life, Betty Shaw has coordinated community activities and Margot Garmers has coordinated education, worship, and representing this area on the Church Council, writing reports and tracking the budget. We are so grateful to everyone who contributed to the amazing work of UBC.

OUTREACH REPORT

As usual, our church has been busy with outreach activities and generous with mission giving this past year. Our Outreach activities have included the following:

- A booth at the Pride Festival staffed by many UBC members
- Roots Cellar concerts
- Presence at the University of MN's Homecoming Parade (as it passes by the church)
- Involvement with the Solidarity Circle
- Presence at Interfaith protests at the Whipple Federal Building and the State Capitol supporting justice issues
- Collection of outerwear to donate to refugee families through the MN Council of Churches (we donated numerous bags and boxes)
- Thrive Initiative for racial justice members have attended online workshops, meetings and conferences

Other Outreach Activities include:

Faithful Hospitality

We joined with Faithful Hospitality to provide housing for guests from other countries. The organization helped families during the day, enrolling their children in schools, helping them learn English, and working on documentation needed for them to stay here. Families needed places to stay after leaving the FH offices, and churches provided that space. UBC housed one family during December, with many church members volunteering as overnight hosts.

Loaves and Fishes

We had another successful year serving Loaves & Fishes in south Minneapolis. Loaves & Fishes has been operating for over 40 years. Their mission is to provide nutritious meals to hungry people in the Twin Cities. We served about 600 meals this past year. In our 35 years participating in the program we have served over 30,000 guests. During the past year we served in August and January. The site wasn't open on our November date this year. We will serve again in May. We continue to serve at Peace House, just south of downtown. While we've been at Peace House, we have a smaller kitchen and prepare carry-out containers, so we don't need quite as many volunteers as we used to. About 10 volunteers come together every three months to put on a Friday evening carry-out meal. We've had great participation from UBC members, their friends, co-workers, and families. Thanks to all our volunteers. -Steve Lee

Meals on Wheels

UBC continues to deliver noontime meals for Eastside Meals on Wheels 4 days a month to a route in southeast Minneapolis. There is a regular group of 6 volunteers, so we reliably fill our schedule. Another volunteer would allow us to cover an entire week since we all have times we are not available. I looked into how long UBC has delivered, and it goes back to the 1980s! -Marie LaFrance

Every Meal

For the past nine years, we have delivered bags with weekend meals to families of children at Marcy Arts Magnet Elementary School. This year, we went on the second Friday of each month. Thank you to the team Kim Donley, Chris Follett, and Denise Roy, who together delivered about 72 bags into children's backpacks every visit.

-Denise Roy

Thanks to everyone who has generously donated time and money to support our outreach to the community and the world! - Kim Donley and Karole Graham, co-chairs

COMMUNICATIONS/MARKETING REPORT

At the time of writing this report, I've been on staff at UBC for just under two months and am happy to say that I've hit the ground running! It's an exciting time for UBC and I look forward to looking back at the impact of these efforts at the next annual meeting. In the meantime, here are my current initiatives:

Updates!

UBC has a new brand identity! We have a new color palette, logo, and slogan, which together will provide the foundation for all marketing materials going forward. We also have some beautiful new high-resolution photography thanks to Trista! This includes headshots, building shots, and group pictures from Palm Sunday. Roll out of the new materials began in early May 2025 and will be a gradual process over the course of several months as various platforms are updated (social media, website, brochures, signs, bulletin boards, etc).

175th Anniversary

I am working with the 175th Anniversary Committee to celebrate 175 years of UBC! This will involve some banners and signs, commemorative giveaways, historical displays, and more, as well as advertising and promoting events and the anniversary year itself.

Digital Platforms

UBC is upping its social media presence! With Trista's help, I've been posting more regularly on Facebook and Instagram, interacting with peer accounts, and increasing engagement from our followers. I will soon begin boosting posts to increase reach. I am in the process of migrating photos from the UBC Facebook Group to the general Facebook Page, and will sunset the Group once that process is complete.

Ad Placements

We will have a quarter-page ad in the Pride issue of Lavender magazine. As part of that ad buy, we also get an individualized e-blast, which I will use for promoting the 175th anniversary and its series of events. I am working with the Minnesota Daily to come up with ways to reach the UMN student population, a process that will begin in the fall. I will also begin boosting Facebook and Instagram posts using both population demographics and geotagging to reach UBC's target markets.

Housekeeping

I've been slowly going through the bulletin boards, flyers, marketing materials, bins for vendor booth activity, Google Drive, etc to organize/centralize things and clear outdated materials, as well as gathering an understanding of existing inventory and marketing activity.

2025-2026 Marketing Plan

I am developing a year-long marketing plan for UBC that I will present to the Church Council before the annual meeting. This will outline goals, budget, action items, and reasoning behind decision-making.

- Maura Dunst, Marketing and Communications Manager

PROPERTY MANAGER REPORT

Building & Grounds

The boiler had more mechanical breakdowns and major repair work was needed for corroded structural components (stay bolts cited in the boiler inspection). System leaks, thermostat malfunction, blower fan malfunction are some of the problems that need to be addressed before the boiler is back into operation in the fall. The 60-year-old air compressor, that is part of the system, burned out and had to be replaced. A new heating system replacement should be a top priority.

The apartment was made ready for new tenants. The wood flooring was sanded and refinished, which was desperately needed, and it really improved the living environment and atmosphere (literally). The stale, heavy air had been overwhelming and oppressive to anyone going into the space, but no longer. The kitchen also got new sheet vinyl flooring. There are more improvements needed, such as window repairs or replacement, but overall, it is a much more comfortable space. Unfortunately, the noise and vibrations from the boiler made it intolerable for the current tenants during the winter and they moved into the main building temporarily. They are now back in the apartment.

We have contracted with Abra Kadabra Environmental for pest control. We had increased mouse activity and sightings this year which has now subsided. They also did gap sealing around the periphery of the exterior.

New gutters and downspouts were installed to replace the ones that were ripped off the roof by ice dams two winters ago. Heat tape was also installed on the roof above the Gym Pit entrance to prevent hazardous ice dams there. Because it was another relatively uneventful winter, we had fewer overhead ice hazards and we saved money in the snow removal budget because our contract was on a "per push" basis instead of a seasonal agreement like last year, and the amount of plowable snow events was below average.

Pending exterior repair projects include the windows and siding above the Portico, concrete and masonry repairs, and again trying to get an architectural design for a roof extension/awning above the lower entrance off the parking lot. I recently replaced the deck boards on the playground equipment but we should consider a total replacement in a couple years.

The Sanctuary floor is showing its age with many cracked tiles and we may want to look at replacement options. At the very least, I will try to find a flooring contractor and get an estimate for repairing it with our supply of replacement tiles. Room 305 and the Gym are also in need of floor maintenance.

We upgraded to new wireless internet equipment after the old components wore out. We've had an ongoing disruption to our elevator emergency telephone, which has been our one and only copper landline. We've had no service since the middle of March. The problem seems to be a severed underground cable a couple of blocks away. Each time I call customer service, they tell me it is scheduled to be reconnected at the end of the next day, but two months have passed with no resolution. I don't know why the elevator has to have a direct landline or what can be done if CenturyLink abandons copper lines, which I've heard they're planning.

Tenants & Rental Update

Current annual leases are being renewed except 311 is still undetermined. There is a 2% increase on the rental rates.

It was a good year for short-term and event rentals in the Assembly Room, Gym, Room 305, and the Sanctuary. We had a variety of political and labor organizations, a theatre play production, a music program with weeks of rehearsals in the Assembly Room and a performance in the Sanctuary, sorority gatherings, a women's weekly basketball game, an athletic team doing different activities, and a youth marching band that practiced in the Gym.

Acknowledgements

I am grateful for the support and encouragement from the congregation, Council, and staff, especially Trista McGovern, for patiently coaching me through computer navigation, and Maura Dunst for improving the website to more effectively promote our rental spaces. Thanks to Betsy Kerr, Trish Donley, and all the Garden Team volunteers for their work and advice for the yard maintenance.

MISSION GIVING at UBC

Our Mission Offerings reflect the variety of concerns at UBC. For more detail, please see the Mission Giving Committee Report.

Our mission giving schedule and causes vary from year to year. Generally, the Mission offerings are taken for two months, although contributions can be made any time during the year.

We have special fund accounts for the Fellowship Fund and Sanctuary Support. Most of the money received this year for Sanctuary Support was from neighboring churches and their members, including donations to cover a washing machine and dryer.

SPECIAL	DESIGNATED GIFTS to UBC
---------	--------------------------------

We have received grants of $10,000 from the Minnesota Historical Society to help with historical architectural research and $23,000 from the Lilly Foundation for Thriving Congregations for discernment expenses, including an architects' report, and advertising and marketing expenses. We have also received a gift of $5,000 from an anonymous donor to help defray expenses for our 175th Anniversary celebration. Other special gifts this year included staff appreciation gifts at Christmas and in-kind gifts for THRIVE travel expenses, communion supplies, floral decorations, garden supplies, winter coats and Easter candy, totaling $1,876 to date.

OPTIONS for PAYING YOUR PLEDGE

Although most UBCers pay by check, many of our members use the automatic pay system at their bank or pay their pledge with a credit card via our online vendor, Vanco. Others have donated appreciated stock and some have made a direct payment from their IRA to the Foundation. If you are interested in donating stock or sending funds from your IRA, those contributions should go directly to the UBC Foundation Account. The UBC treasurer will then transfer the funds from that account to the UBC checking account. Note that a Qualified Charitable Deduction (QCD) from your IRA is not reported as income on your tax return.

$753,630 Foundation Balance at CORIENT & UBC @ 12/31/2024

5.6% Average Annual Net Rate of Return (average since 1978)

$43,000 Regular Authorized UBC Withdrawal: 2/3 operating budget & 1/3 CISA

Formulas used to calculate the Foundation payout:

the total return = current Fnd balance - prior Fnd balance + net withdrawals

How much money was in the Foundation on Jan 1 and Dec 31 of the previous year? What was the net effect of withdrawals & new money ?

the rate of return (ROR) = ln [(prior Fnd balance + total return) / prior Fnd balance] the net rate of return = the ROR - the rate of inflation annual inflation factor = 3rd Qtr GDP price deflator (current yr / prior yr) source: US Dept of Commerce: Bureau of Economic Analysis. Series GNPDEF
